

CONTEXT/BELIEF STATEMENT

Due to inclement weather, it is sometimes inappropriate for students to be outside during break time. This may be due to rain, temperature or other weather issues. Students and staff have the right to be as comfortable as possible in the school on these days.

HOT WEATHER

As a guideline, if the temperature is 36 C or greater at the beginning of a recess break the students will go outside but will be encouraged to remain under the shade and low key activities will be encouraged.

If it is 36 C or greater at the beginning of a lunch break the students will remain in their classrooms. It will be up to the leadership team to make the final decision, taking into consideration all of the weather conditions.

Temperatures will be monitored on the internet by Leadership. (Link to Prospect weather on the desktop).

Food and Drink – All students' food and drink should be stored inside the classrooms during Term 1 and 4. However, parents need to be aware of weather conditions when packing lunches.

Sun Smart practices will be promoted during hot weather (hat policy, sunscreen, playing in shaded areas, frequent water drinks).

The school uses a combination of sun protection measures for all outdoor activities from 1 September to 30 April and whenever UV levels reach 3 and above at other times.

RAINY WEATHER

Leadership will ring the siren at the beginning of the recess and lunch break for wet weather.

It will be leadership's responsibility to ring the siren during the break.

If it is light rain students will be encouraged to take cover under verandahs, or shelter sheds.

If it is heavy rain, students will remain in class.

The siren will ring 3 times to signal inclement weather.

If the weather changes the siren will be rung once for outside play.

During inclement weather, students will need to remain in the class areas. Duty of care means that an adult must resume responsibility for the students; therefore, class teachers in shared areas will pair up to share the duty.
